mer - i - ca, my pride, my home No king sits here up - on a mer - i - ca, thou art so free Like thy sweet god - dess of Lib - er - throne, For here a - ny man may climb to the heights And we ty Whose bright torch lights all the world to thee, All a - all will fight for the stars and stripes, For the red white and blue so grand; We lone so grand on a height she stands, And in - spires sons of oth - er lands, And love the sil - ver - y stars of hope Like a gal - a - xy ov - er our land.

beck-ons our sons to rise and fight Like the ea - gle for jus - tice and right.

O, we a - dore our flag on sea — For it waves for a na - tion free, — And on ships that sail on clouds — wav - ing high for de - moc - ra - cy, — And we pray — it wave on sea — and shore, An un - con - quered flag, — for - ev - er - more .
